

MICHIGAN CHESAPEAKE BAY RETRIEVER CLUB

www.micbrc.orgAugust/SeptemberACC Supported Show

By Tina Cox

Despite the rain it was a great weekend for the Chessie's again this year at the supported show. We had a wonderful entry of 45 beautiful dogs. I can't imagine being the judge and trying to decide from such wonderful representations of the breed which one should win. The trophy table was absolutely breathtaking with all the wonderful donations from ACC and MCBRC members; a huge thank you to all who donated. We held our annual potluck picnic after breed judging which was very tasty thanks to all the wonderful cooks. The raffle went well with tons of great donations. All in all it was a fantastic day of enjoying our dogs and the good company of each other.

CONGRATULATIONS TO ALL!

Working Dog Stake 2010

By Elbert Rush

The barking of dogs, the scrape of heavily laden sleds along the ground, the swish of native prairie grass, and the trudge of footsteps were the sounds of, not a goose or duck hunt, but the set-up and running of the Michigan Chesapeake Bay Retriever Club's 3rd Working Dog stake on September 12th, 2010. To reach an area with enough water to accommodate a Working Dog Stake required a walk of nearly ¼ of a mile across part of the Lapeer State Game Area's Field Trial grounds, and everyone pitched in and helped to haul holding blinds, popper guns, birds and bird launchers, marshals supplies, and all the myriad other paraphernalia that goes into holding a Working Dog test across the terrain to the test site. Despite the long walk and hard work, most everyone had a good time, and laughter and smiles were the order of the day.

While club members and workers were busy hauling gear into the test site, the judges had been busy with the wingers and set up some very challenging tests. There were no give-me's at any level and the dogs that passed earned their ribbons fair and square. We had 14 entries with 9 handlers. The WDX dogs ran first, followed by the two WDQ entries, and then the WD dogs. 8 dogs earned passes, and some excellent field work was done at all levels.

Our judges were Kim Bryson and Richard Ewald, and they did an excellent job for us setting up some good, solid, fun and challenging tests. Thank-you Kim and Richard.

The American Chesapeake Club and the Michigan Chesapeake Bay Retriever Club 2010 Working Dog Stake is now in the books, and I hope to see everyone at the next ACC and MCBRC Working Dog Stake.

WD “Virgin”

by Robin Short

It was a beautiful, late summer morning in September. I was all excited because it was going to be my “first” time working a WD Test. I was all prepared; boots, cooler with LOTS of water, Gatorade and ice packs, a tote bag with extra socks and shoes, a spare shirt, a light jacket and sweatshirt, sunscreen, shorts and plenty of wet wipes, and of course, my “light weight” folding chair.

When I got to the meeting site a bit late, as usual, most everyone had already gone on to the staging area. I was asked to stay there to direct any late comers and after 15 or 20 minutes the last participants had been sent to the staging area and I joined everyone there. It was a beehive of activity; people setting up their vehicles to make sure the dogs were protected from the sun and making sure there was plenty of water available, walking their dogs and generally getting ready for the long day.

Suddenly it was time to go to the field and set up! I remember someone telling me it was a “bit of a walk”. So, I gathered my cooler, tote, chair and set off. After walking what seemed like 10 miles and cursing myself for bringing so much water and thinking I could have easily done without the chair and tote, after walking for what must have been only 5 minutes, but felt like an eternity, I finally reached the field where the judges were. At this point, I was ready for a nice long break, and someone to rub my feet, to recover from my 20 mile hike.

The gunners were getting all set up and the judges were double checking to make sure things were good to go. My station was at the line to assist the judges and take the birds from the handlers or judges.

It was time! The test dog ran the test and the WD began. I was amazed by the intensity of the dogs! They knew what was coming and wanted so badly to do their job and retrieve the birds! The handlers were phenomenal and I could easily see the dedication and commitment it takes to train and work these awesome dogs! By the time the land portion of the WD was done I was convinced that, with some time and training, my dog and I could do this, too! Most dogs received a “pass” for their land retrieves. To the few that didn’t...GREAT JOB!!

Okay, so now this part of the WD is complete and it’s time to make the 25 mile hike back to the staging area for lunch. Luckily I didn’t have to bring the cooler, tote and chair. I was glad lunch wasn’t ready yet...I had to recuperate from the walk back before I even thought about eating! We had a nice lunch with hot dogs, cooked by Michelle Keehn, and side dishes brought by some members. After 45 minutes or so I was ready to go again and it was time to head down to the lake for the water portion of the WD.

It’s funny how quickly we forget. The water portion of the test was about 10 miles BEYOND where the land test was. So now, after stopping to pick up the cooler, tote and chair, I continued walking for another eternity (probably another 5 minutes) and was surprised when I reached the water without collapsing. Again, I was ready for a nice long break!

Once things got underway again, I forgot about “the walk” and focused on helping and watching. The land retrieves were very impressive. However, the water retrieves allowed me to see the Chessie do what they were bred for! These dogs are tenacious and single minded. I’ve never seen anything quite like it. The eagerness they showed and the stamina they had absolutely thrilled me! Not one of them ever gave up; they just kept swimming on, trying to catch the scent.

Well, the testing was over...so once again it was time to make the dreaded 45 mile walk back to the staging area. Only this time, not only did I need to lug the cooler, tote and chair back, we were also packing up everything else. Thankfully, someone had a big wheeled cart that we piled a bunch of stuff on and there were a couple of sleds that had even more stuff loaded on them. I, of course, was one of the last people back and felt as though I had been walking for hours and was totally exhausted. That's just me....I'm a wimp, but I don't whine.

Once the judges finalized their paperwork, they announced the placing and handed out ribbons. Everyone did such a great job! By the end of the day, I had developed a whole new respect for the sport of duck hunting and the people who participate in it. Their love for the dogs and enthusiasm for working their dogs is a wonderful thing to witness.

All-in-all, after walking at least 100 miles, getting slightly sunburned (cause I forgot to put on the sunscreen), a few bug bites, and feet so sore that I took my boots off and drove home barefoot, it was, for me, a great day! Will I do it again?? IN A HEARTBEAT!!! Thanks to all for making my first WD something I will remember for the rest of my life.
